water, so it was determined to repair the boat, as far as possible, and stand to sea, in this hope of falling in with some vessel. For five days the boat was without any water, and the men, receiving the daily allowance for each, then came in a heavy shower of rain, and relieved them of their water. The Irish, however, were not the hapless men were drifted about for thirty-one days, when they providentially reached the coast of Ireland, on the 10th of October. There they were received most kindly, and the men who supplied them with everything the island afforded; the boat was once more effectually repaired, and the men, who were now all well, and in the enjoyment of male and young, having been stowed on board, together with water and a compass, they put

In an action for breach of promise of marriage, in which judgment had been allowed to go against the plaintiff, Conant v. Conant, yesterday assessed the damages at $76.

A man named Dwyer, described as a pugilist, was yesterday brought up at Bow-street, charged with a fight with a woman named Mrs. T. Henry ordered him to find sureties to keep the peace. At Wormworth-street four gave bail for him, and he was released, having violently assaulted a policeman with intent to murder him.

them, all of us! O, when shall we be done with these fearful cruelties? When shall we live like men?"

Senior Arpaes concludes his article with an interesting appeal to the Durres to strive not to carry out a threat he had made in the first burst of her agony, to the effect that she would take her husband's body away from Spain, and shake off the dust of her feet and that of her children from the country of so much ingratitude and so much treachery.

A few nights ago a laborer found a pocket book at Sheriff Hutton containing £100. He restored it at once, and was rewarded by the owner with—3d.
